Wiskow, Christiane
International Labour Organisation

Ms. Christiane Wiskow is Specialist for the health sector at the International Labour Organization (ILO) in Geneva, Switzerland. The main aims of the ILO are to promote rights at work, encourage decent employment opportunities, enhance social protection and strengthen social dialogue, as integral part of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda (SDG 8). Ms. Wiskow has a professional background in social sciences, health sciences and public health, and practical work experience in community based psychiatry. She has specialized in international public health with a focus on health workforce issues and has been working with a number of international organizations, mainly on labour aspects in the health sector. Her work at the ILO contributes to promoting employment and decent work in the health sector with view to achieving universal access to health care. A key aspect is to advance improvements of employment and working conditions that enable and support health workers to provide quality health care. Since 2017, Ms. Wiskow coordinates the ILO work for the ILO-OECD-WHO Working for Health Programme.
