EUROPEAN HEALTH FORUM
GASTEIN

Wittenberg, Raphael
London School of Economics (LSE)

Raphael Wittenberg is an Associate Professorial Research Fellow at the Personal Social Services Research Unit (PSSRU) at the London School of Economics and Political Science and Deputy Director of the Centre for Health Service Economics and Organisation (CHSEO) at the University of Oxford. He previously worked in the UK Government Economic Service.

Raphael is currently engaged in several studies on dementia care as well as studies on eye care in India, financing of care for older people, multi-morbidity, personalisation in care homes, social care workforce and other topics. He has for many years led the PSSRU programme of research on the financing of long-term care. He designed and developed a range of models to produce estimates of the current and projected future costs of care.

Raphael has published in a range of academic journals including Ageing and Society, Health Economics Policy and Law, International Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry, Social Policy & Administration, Social Policy and Society, The Lancet.

(last updated 28.09.2018)