

Woxström, Stefan

AstraZeneca

Stefan Woxström is Senior Vice President, Europe & Canada (EUCAN) at AstraZeneca, responsible for leading the company's sales, marketing and commercial operations in 30 European countries and Canada.

Stefan has been with AstraZeneca since 1996, when he began his professional career. He started as a Sales Representative for AstraZeneca Sweden, before becoming National Sales Manager, National Sales Director and Marketing Director Cardiovascular, respectively. In 2008, he was appointed Regional Business Director, Specialty Care of AstraZeneca's former 'Central Eastern Europe Middle East and Africa' (CEEMEA) Office in Belgium. A year later, Stefan was promoted to Country President of Ukraine & the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS), serving in this role until 2012. This was followed by three further leadership roles as Country President for Turkey (2012-2014), the Nordic-Baltics region (2014-2017), and most recently, Japan (2018-2022).

Stefan serves as a Board Member of EFPIA (European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industry Association) in Europe.

Stefan holds a BSc and an MSc in Business Administration & Economics from Stockholm University, Sweden.

Stefan, who is originally from Sweden, is based in Zug, Switzerland.